Tense Moments For Divers

Divers from the Antioch Fire Department Underwater Recovery Team spent several tension-packed moments Saturday as they searched for the body of a snowmobiler, who had apparently gone into Bluff Lake with his snowmobile. However, after several hectic minutes it was learned that the operator of the vehicle was safe at a nearby resort.

Evidently, Christopher Lavoie 18, of Chicago, the driver had strayed onto a patch of thin ice and sat helplessly as his snowmobile began to sink. However, before the snowmobile went under he was able to scurry 150 feet to shore in the frigid chest deep water.

He reached shore, clammered up the embankment and disappeared.

It was not until divers had been in the water for nearly half an hour that they learned Lavoie had escaped. A pair of gloves and tracks had been discovered by passer-bys, but the divers had to assume the man had gone under.

Following this discovery, the divers located and recovered the snowmobile in the murky, freezing waters.

After an investigation Lavoie was ticketed and charged with operating an unregistered snowmobile.

Chief Deputy Sheriff Jerome Schuetz warned all snowmobilers to "check out all planned trails" and "stay off lakes whenever possible."

County Board Campaign Reaches Climax

With the February 8th primary less than a week away, campaigns are now in full gear and at their emotional zenith.

In our own area Lloyd "Red" Murrie is just about to complete what he termed "a very intensive campaign."

Murrie is one of eight Republicans fighting for five open spots in the April 4th election.

Restructuring of the County Board has shrunk a six township area into a five man representative district. The five will run more or less at large.

Normally all six Township Supervisors would be members of the board, but the Supreme Court's One-Man-One-Vote ruling has changed all that.

Since no Democrats are considered serious threats to Republicans in heavily G.O.P. Lake County, it is felt a victory in the Republican primary will, barring a major upset, assure the winner a place on the board.

However, many Republican candidates, Murrie included, are very concerned that a light turnout on February 8th will change the current balance of representation and shift political weight to the more populous townships in the newly created district.

"To me the primary is the whole story. If the people of Antioch Township want representation on the County Board, they will have to turn out and vote," Murrie indicated.

He said that local representatives were historically more responsive to their constituents need and added, "if you have no local representation, you have no one to turn to."

Murrie is campaigning on a slate that contains two other current township supervisors and board members; Harry Robin of Grant Township and Ron Coles of Lake Villa Township.

Murrie termed it a "strong slate" and indicated that all three "were well experienced."

The slate was formed in an effort to endure representation from the small townships and to garner support and cut campaign expenses for the three.

Robin, Coles and Murrie have the support of numerous organizations, including the Men's and Women's Republican Clubs of Antioch Township and the Republican Precinct Committeemen of Lake Villa.

The slate and their campaign staff have been waging an extensive telephone and mailing campaign to get the vote out. Murrie noted that normally as few as 25% of the registered voters cast ballots on primary day.

Murrie ended the frank discussion of the campaign to interject a bit of humor on the placement of names on the ballot.

"They put the names of the six incumbent supervisors in a hat and drew by lot. Mine came up first, but because they're using reverse order my name will appear sixth from the top. It's the first time that winning makes you number six."

"Ride Along" to continue

Police Chief Jack Davis has announced that the highly successful "Ride Along" program will enter its second phase on February 7th.

Ten students, mostly juniors have already signed up and Davis expected "many more before we start."

The Students will accompany police officers during the 4-9 p.m. shift, six days a week.

The first phase of the program, run before Christmas saw scores of high school seniors ride with patrolmen on the evening shift. After completing their ride they were asked to fill out a questionnaire.

According to Davis, the police found many of their suggestions helpful. He thought the program had achieved its purpose: improving understanding between students and law enforcement.

BUNNY RECEIVES SNOWMOBILE

Lending proof to the adage that a beautiful woman can get away with arriving late, Miss Cheryl Lee was forty-five minutes tardy for the presentation of her free snowmobile.

However, none of the assembled crowd proved hostile to the lovely Mount Prospect resident.

Miss Lee, the reigning queen of "Playboy's" bunny brigade was presented with a Moto Ski snowmobile by Pete Pearse of Pearse's Snowmobile Sales in Antioch, as part of the tribute paid to the loveliest of Hugh Heffner's domestic help.

Miss Lee won the honor on the basis of intelligence, personality and beauty. Competition for the coveted award included all bunnies from Playboy's many clubs and hutches.

As part of her duties as queen, Miss Lee has done considerable traveling to promote the popular night spots and serves as "door greeter" at the plush Chicago Club.

Chronic absenteeism in the Congress has motivated Senator Margaret Chase Smith of Maine to propose a Constitutional Amendment to expel members who fail to be recorded on 40% or more of the roll call vote.

Their absences from the Senate Chamber have contributed to the failure of that body to act on many legislative measures - some of which should have high priority.

Since this is the first week my column will be in the ANTIOCH NEWS, I thought I'd give you a preview of what will be seen in the future columns of SPEAK OUT!

This is mostly for people who want to SPEAK OUT using this newspaper as a medium. Sometimes I will have the question-answer type column asking people what their personal views are on certain subjects. For example, drugs, draft dodging, police brutality, etc.

What I really want is people (YOU) to SPEAK OUT and write in views or gripes on anything and everything. Names will be withheld by request, but please sign all letters. I believe in free speech all the way, so help me make this contemplate the need for such a drastic step as Senator Smith has proposed because, originally, members of the House and Senate were compensated only for days when they actually served in Washington. Since Senators and Representatives today receive an annual salary, the inducement for regular attendance is far less than in the early days of the Republic.

Of course, it would seem that absences occasioned by certain other official duties should be excused. For instance, two members of the House of Representatives serve as Congressional Delegates to the United Nations - which result in their frequent absences from House sessions. The measure sponsored by Senator Smith is not intended to prevent such essential activities - but is directed primarily at those who neglect their Congressional responsibilities, and use their office in the United States Congress as a platform from which to campaign for the office of President. Senator Smith herself was a candidate for President in the 1964 election, but continued to maintain her near-perfect attendance record during the entire time.

In castigating some of her colleagues, Mrs. Smith has charged that the Senate "has become a mere springboard to those who would use it - even abuse it - for their selfish interests, whether such interests be commercializing their position and title with the acquisition of high-price lecture fees or running for President."

Notwithstanding this sharp rebuke, it is doubtful that Senator Smith's proposed Constitutional Amendment will receive widespread support. Nevertheless, her action, coupled with the national publicity which it has received, may encourage closer attention to attendance records.

Common Sense ON SNOWMOBILES

Minorities and the effect their small members have on us have been mentioned in context with many current issues.

Now another such small group is well on the way to destroying the image and freedom of another worthwhile pastime: Snowmobiling.

I'm sure many people have suffered the inconvenience of early morning sleeplessness due to the lack of consideration and common courtesy of a small number of snowmobile riders.

Snowmobiling has grown in a few short years to be a recognized national hobby. However, due to the thoughtless actions of a few, the greater number of considerate and law abiding riders will almost surely suffer.

Because of many ignorant and senseless abuses: late night riding, trespass, criminal destruction of property - it won't be long until government bodies, both state and local, begin to restrict and limit the use of the snowmobile, thus legislating away many of the pleasures a wise rider and his family could enjoy.

In addition to a lack of concern for others, snowmobile riders take many unnecessary risks while crossing highways or running on channels that never completely freeze and so put their own lives and the lives of others in jeopardy.

These few hints from veteran riders could easily save a life and the family tragedy, plus the danger that is faced by volunteer divers.

Never drive at night over terrain that is unfamiliar to you.

Take special caution when riding on ice. Walk the area you plan to use and check the ice for thickness and stability. A lake that has few fishing huts or tracks could be a real hazard.

Avoid channels that seldom freeze.

If common sense and common courtesy are used snowmobiling will continue to offer it's special brand of pleasure. If not, legislation is almost certain and the privileges of all will be curtailed.

Karen Returns with Memories of Spain

THE SPANISH

Fruitcake, punch and mistletoe - such are traditional ingredients of the U. S. festive spirit.

From the very first day in my village home in southeastern Spain, enthusiastic inhabitants told me of the gala holiday to be celebrated within a few weeks after my arrival. This annual four-day holiday wasn't for Christmas or New Year, but just a festive occasion, a "fiesta" which turns out to be an all-play and no work time to celebrate life!

After three weeks of anticipation, hearing of all there'd be to do and all the fun, the day of the fiesta arrived.

Despite aspirin, prayers and sheer desire, I couldn't pick myself up out of bed!!

Seeking me out when I didn't come to breakfast, my family was aghast to find I was ill - and with the fiesta to begin at 6 p.m.!

So began an all-out attempt to cure the sore throat and restore the spirits of the visiting American. When chicken soup and various other more colorful and less pleasant home remedies failed to produce rapid results, employment of more drastic means was carried out regardless of my protest.

The sight alone of the local "physician" was some stimulation toward recovery, his depression of my tongue with a metal spoon accompanied by the lighting of a match to diagnose my throat problem encouraged the return of my good health; and when the conclusion was that an injection would probably be the quickest way of getting me on my feet, I nearly flew out of bed, saying "I feel lots better now. Let's go to the fiesta!"

GAIETY PREVAILED

The fiesta itself proved to be the cure of all ills. All 3000 inhabitants turn out, strolling up and down the main street of the village. Decorations adorn the street and music fills the air. Gaiety prevails throughout as little booths vend candy sold specially at the fiesta. Amusement for all includes, of course, a miniature Ferris Wheel!

At about 9 o'clock the dancing begins - large, open, decorated area fills with people, a band strikes up - and the village dances 'til 4 a.m. Never did I enter when the dancefloor didn't appear one mass of happy faces and bodies dancing to the music. Here too are some of the most unlikely couples because there are no wallflowers nor shyness. In an atmosphere where all are family or friends the festivities just never slow down, cousins dancing with cousins, mothers with sons - everyone.

Each night a procession of the young women of the village carries the Blessed Virgin of the village church through the street, escorted by the queen of the fiesta and her court. What's more, bicycle rallies, a soccer game - activities of all types fill these wondrous days.

"CHURROS" AND CHOCOLATE ummmm!

As every festival throughout the world has its "unforgettable edibles", so too does this fiesta, and here is where I could often be found. But not because I was always eating. I was helping to make and sell it! Each year the family I lived with runs the booth where "churros" and chocolate are sold. "Churros" are similar to donuts, but spiral in shape and the size of a large pizza. Prepared in an olive oil filled apparatus the size of a washing machine, then sprinkled with sugar and cut into small pieces, they are then dunked into a rich chocolate syrup. As the villagers stroll through the streets, as a breather from dancing or as a special breakfast treat, "churros" are the highlight of the celebration and an important tradition.

Characterization of the friendliness of this area, this celebration perhaps means more than Christmas. This is the time for the entire village to get together, four days devoted to the inhabitants' enjoyment of one another, and there is surely thorough participation.

NEW CLOTHES A MUST

Everyone also has new clothing for the fiesta. Each woman has sewn a new dress for herself and takes special care to outfit the family. After the fiesta, of necessity this will become an everyday work outfit, but its newness for the fiesta is the important factor.

A bullfight held in a neighboring little village exemplified again the vitality of the rural Spaniard. Although the bulls were young, and the bullfighters of little renown, the spectators loved the event. The stands were filled, wineskins passed generously down the rows and shouts of approval and disapproval raised loud and frequently. These small town people were so anxious to award the matador an ear for a good performance and to throw their hat or a wineskin to him as he circled the ring, one must wonder at their vitality and enthusiasm of life.

More than any other factor, these celebrations taught me a lesson in life. Without leaving their own villages nor spending money, without seeking new acquaintances nor abandoning tradition, these people enjoy themselves in a way I find incomparable. I'll always remember them as they smiled and danced, or offered their wine to a successful matador.

FINE ARTS DEPARTMENT CONCERT A HUGE SUCCESS

The Antioch High School Annual Stage Band - Swing Choir concert held on Sunday night was a fine evening of entertainment.

Under the direction of Mr. Lee Gustafson the "New Sound of Music" rocked the rafters and set the toes tapping. The young people in the band had no one to "cover" for them - the solos were great.

A combo, student directed by Phil Martinez, who played an electric organ, gave each member his chance to shine - Jerry Smouse and Bill Gable played jazz trumpet - Gary Rush played tenor Sax - Ron Tuminello played electric base - Dave Rush was at the drums.

The Swing Choir, under the direction of Mr. Ralph Brooke performed in their usual fine voice. The "Coca Cola" song had us all wanting to join in as the young people seemed to enjoy the singing.

Cheri Dalgaard played her guitar and accompanied the choir. She soloed in "Amazing Grace."

There was an Art display in the lobby from Mrs. Jane Craner's evening adult class. The art work ranged from a fine pencil drawing to water colors to oil colors. It showed a remarkable town talent.

Don't miss the next performance of the Fine Arts Department.

The show, a Charles Gaynor collection of comedy sketches set to music was Carol Channing's first Broadway show. The PM&L version is directed by Ken Smouse of Antioch and the cast includes Deena Fabre, Gloria Davis, Dee Baum, Don Beveroth, Steve Smouse, Betty Waters, Elda Minger, Fred Holbert, Nancy Eberman, Tom Hausman, Aileen Biel, Charlie Brown, Shirley Jensen and Bob Lindblad.

An unusual display of Lapidary and Batik art is planned for the Antioch Theater lobby on the show nights.

SEQUOIT SMOKE Signals

Injuries seem to be the thing around school this year. No sooner is Tim back in the line up than BILL SEVERSON the captain of the wrestling team, breaks his hand. However, that didn't have such disastrous effects on the team as the WRESTLERS defeated both Round Lake and Woodstock this weekend!

The basketball team split over the weekend. The SEQUOITS defeated Round Lake at home Friday night but lost to Warren at an away game Saturday night. That puts us in a tie for second place with Warren and Lake Zurich.

The TOM-TOM staff was hard at work last week as their third issue came out Friday. As usual the staff did a good job in putting the paper together.

The SOPHOMORE CLASS G.A.A. volleyball team has a good reason to be proud. They've taken first place in the class volleyball team competition. Congratulations! The real test is yet to come though. The G.A.A. All-Stars are going to match their skills against them. The date of the match is not set yet.

Sunday night was a real treat! The SWING CHOIR and STAGE BAND presented their annual Pop Concert. The swing choir sang a lot of contemporary songs several with guitar accompaniment. The stage band presented several jazz-like numbers with a real modern sound. One very unique number presented was entirely student organized. It was performed by a jazz combo made up of some of the members of the stage band. PHIL MARTINEZ is the leader of the group. The number was improvisational slightly derived from a record.

The Art Classes had a display of paintings set up at the concert too. The whole evening was well worth while and very enjoyable.

See you next week.

There are so many nice things that come with a First National Bank Checking account

Leave your slippers on when you pay your bills! With a First National Checking Account there's no need to leave the house. No more walking around town to pay your bills. No more standing in line.

It's a simple matter of you and the nearest mailbox.

But convenience is only part of the story. Take cost. A First National Checking Account permits you to write checks for only 10 cents each. If you keep a balance, you can actually write free checks.

You also get other nice things with a checking account. Peace of mind, for instance. It's a lot safer to carry checks rather than cash. And your cancelled checks automatically give you proof of payment. No more keeping great piles of receipts. No more hunting to see whether you've paid a bill.

You get monthly statements, too, which helps keep your financial affairs organized. And up to date. Another nice thing: It takes less than 5 minutes to open an account.

So come in! Join all those other people we're keeping off the street.

Fans That Can Talk

Currently on display at the Antioch Township library is a unique collection of exotic and antique fans.

The fans are the property of Mrs. James McMillen of Antioch. Mrs. McMillen explained that part of the collection had been given her by Mrs. Emily Yeager of Lake Bluff. They had been collected by her mother and were a family keepsake.

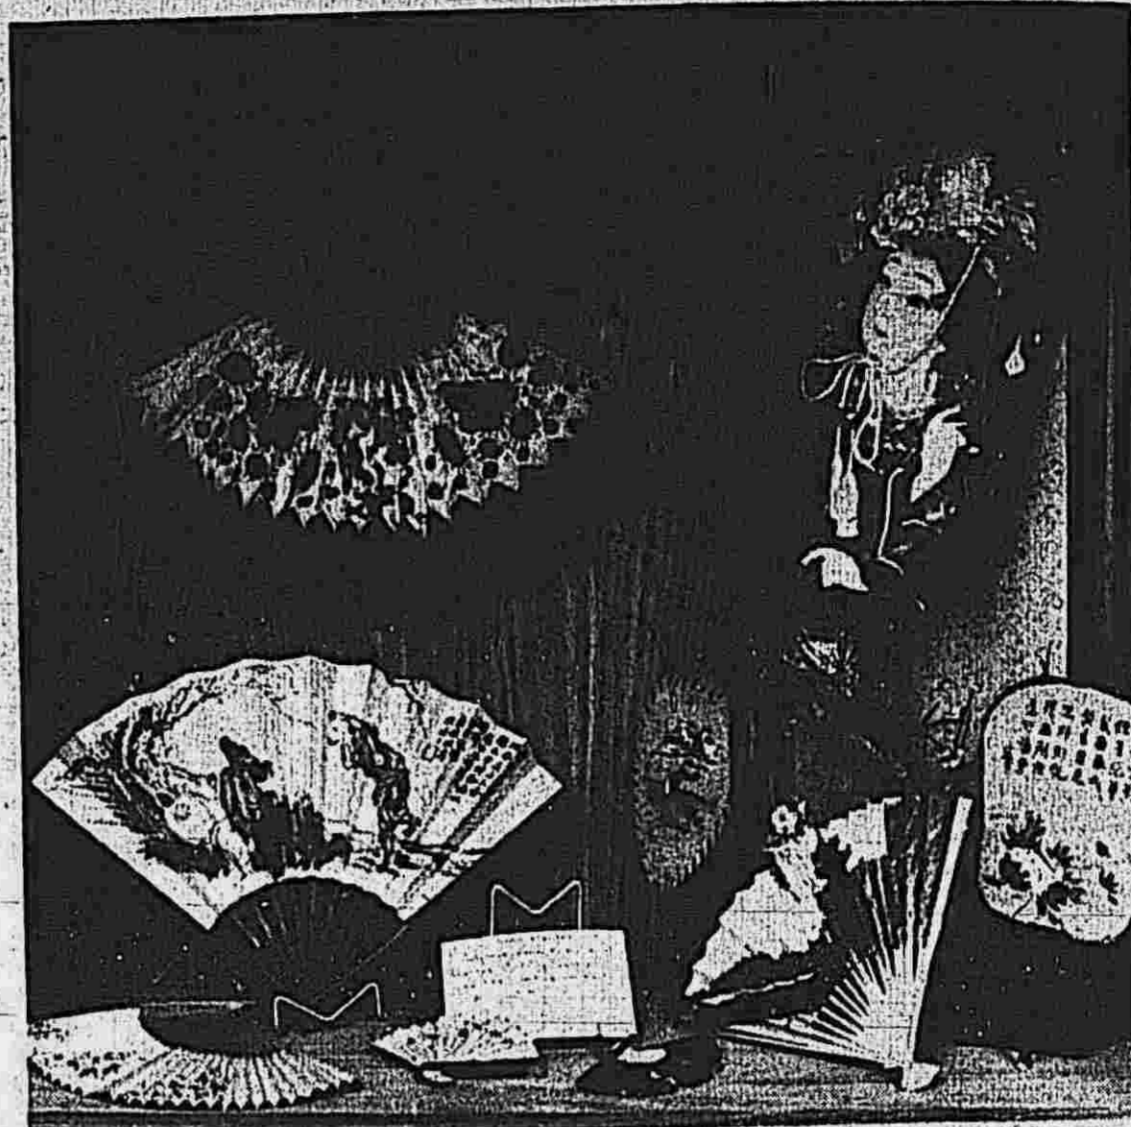

Mrs. McMillen explained that she would "pick up new fans now and then" at auctions and from friends that traveled abroad.

Her collection includes fans from the Orient, Europe and New World. Many of the examples are priceless originals or exact replicas of fans used by royalty and commoners from the "era of fans."

Mrs. McMillen's collection is enhanced by dolls in the custom of the day when the particular fans were in vogue.

She went on to explain that fans were not restricted to women alone. Men carried them as ornaments and used them in certain ceremonial duties.

During the eighteenth century, men in France were forbidden to wear swords. However, the men of the day often had swords or daggers built into their ornate fans. Many was the gentleman that surprised authorities with a swipe of this innocent looking device.

Mrs. McMillen went on to say that in Spain a "language of fans" flourished. By the use of known fan signals, young maidens could flirt and "talk" with a suitor while being escorted by a companion or chaperone.

Some of the more engaging signals were: "I am a married woman"; "I am available" and the classic; "Watch out, Mother is coming!"

The fan collection will be on display for a two-month engagement and should prove quite interesting.

dancing, accompanied by guitar, banjo and ukulele. Also there will be original sketches showing events in day to day living, humorously exaggerated. Sort of "seeing ourselves, perhaps, as others see us."

Airplane rides, and activities abounded at the Alan Knutesen's annual "Snow Party", held that arctic night of January 28th, with some fifty guests attending. Bob Anderson, Grass Lake, came with his own airplane, and took turns taking all aloft who wanted brief plane rides, then landing and taking off on the ice of Antioch Lake. Snowmobiles went speeding on the surrounding hilly terrain. Still others practiced their ice skating skills in the clear cold moonlight. All evening, there was plenty of good hearty food and hot drinks to quickly warm up all who were chilly. All agreed it was one of the nicest "Snow" parties ever held!

Surely hope that when young Hal Ditzig, son of the Michael Ditzig's of Grass Lake, celebrated his fourth birthday on February 1st, he was feeling much better. Hal had serious ear surgery a short time ago. Not much fun to be missing out on the snow and slick sledding!

Jerry Shatley, North Main St., Antioch fell a few days ago while at work, breaking one arm, and badly bruising his head and other arm. BEST WISHES FOR A FAST RECOVERY!

Congratulations to the John Handschiegel's, Grass Lake, who celebrated their fourth wedding anniversary on January 26th. The junior Ed Jahneke family hosted a dinner for them that evening.

American Legion Auxiliary News

"Although 'Civil Defense Day' is designated as falling on December 7th, civil defense is a year round project" states Mrs. Philip Cole, Highland Park, district civil defense chairman of the 10th District American Legion Auxiliary. "Civil Defense and Emergency Planning have proven their importance during many disasters on the homefront. Civil defense preparedness can and must return daily benefits as well as potential. It should cover the full range of protection for citizens from hazards which pose a threat to their health and well being. Dual use reporting systems can be used to monitor and report air pollution, severe storms, large scale fires, civil disturbances, evacuation of cities with potential explosive situations, etc."

"Civil defense attempts to preserve American lives and our institutions if an enemy should ever attack, either from within or without. Their programs must have leadership, planning, training, but above all, it requires the active participation of all Americans.

In spite of the best preparations and efforts in this nuclear age, there is still the possibility of nuclear attack. The three major dangers associated with nuclear attack are: blast, heat and radioactive fallout. The blast and heat could cause tremendous destruction, but the radioactive fallout is the most threatening and dangerous."

Mrs. Cole emphasized that many American Legion Auxiliary Units are stressing a "Spotlight on Action" for working within the community to promote personal and family survival, medical self-help, first aid and home study courses in civil defense and emergency planning. Pamphlets and booklets for those who are interested may be obtained through local civil defense chairmen.

Mrs. Bernard Stadick is civil defense chairman of the Antioch American Legion Auxiliary. In the near future, she will report on the fall-out shelters available in the Antioch area, and other phases of vital importance in this program.

Beauty and Elegance Rediscovered

Standing over two feet tall this Lladro contains many of the striking features that make the porcelain figures so beautiful. (Staff Photo)

In the jargon of today's industrial baron, mass production and quality control are keywords. Finished products creep impassively down silvery metallic assembly lines with a lifeless, inanimate look.

The era of the craftsman; the silversmith; cabinet maker and glass blower has been shouldered aside by the rush for economic riches entailed in the conveyor mentality.

Quality is becoming increasingly difficult to find and harder still to afford.

There is however, a secret haven in Antioch for those weary of buying from shelves overstocked with tasteless, mass produced goods.

The back room of Olson's General Store contains a treasure chest of artistic and unique pieces.

Perhaps the least striking to the unaccustomed eye are the Lladros that are porcelain figurines best known for their intricate detail and stunning facial expressions.

Created in Valencia Spain by three brothers, Lladros are unexcelled in the creative imagery and take on almost an animate glow. They are finished in soft, muted shades of blue, brown and white and are thought to be perhaps the best porcelain figurines produced in the world.

Great care is taken in their manufacture. There are often many molds or dyes needed to create graceful limbs, provocative hands, folds in clothing or texture in hair and garments.

Pewter ware was once the standard of quality for tableware, kitchen utensils and drinking mugs. However, more easily mass produced or manufactured metals were incorporated to cut down production costs. Nevertheless, pewter, an alloy of tin, copper lead and antimony has made a recovery and is now in limited production because of its heft and original hand wrought look.

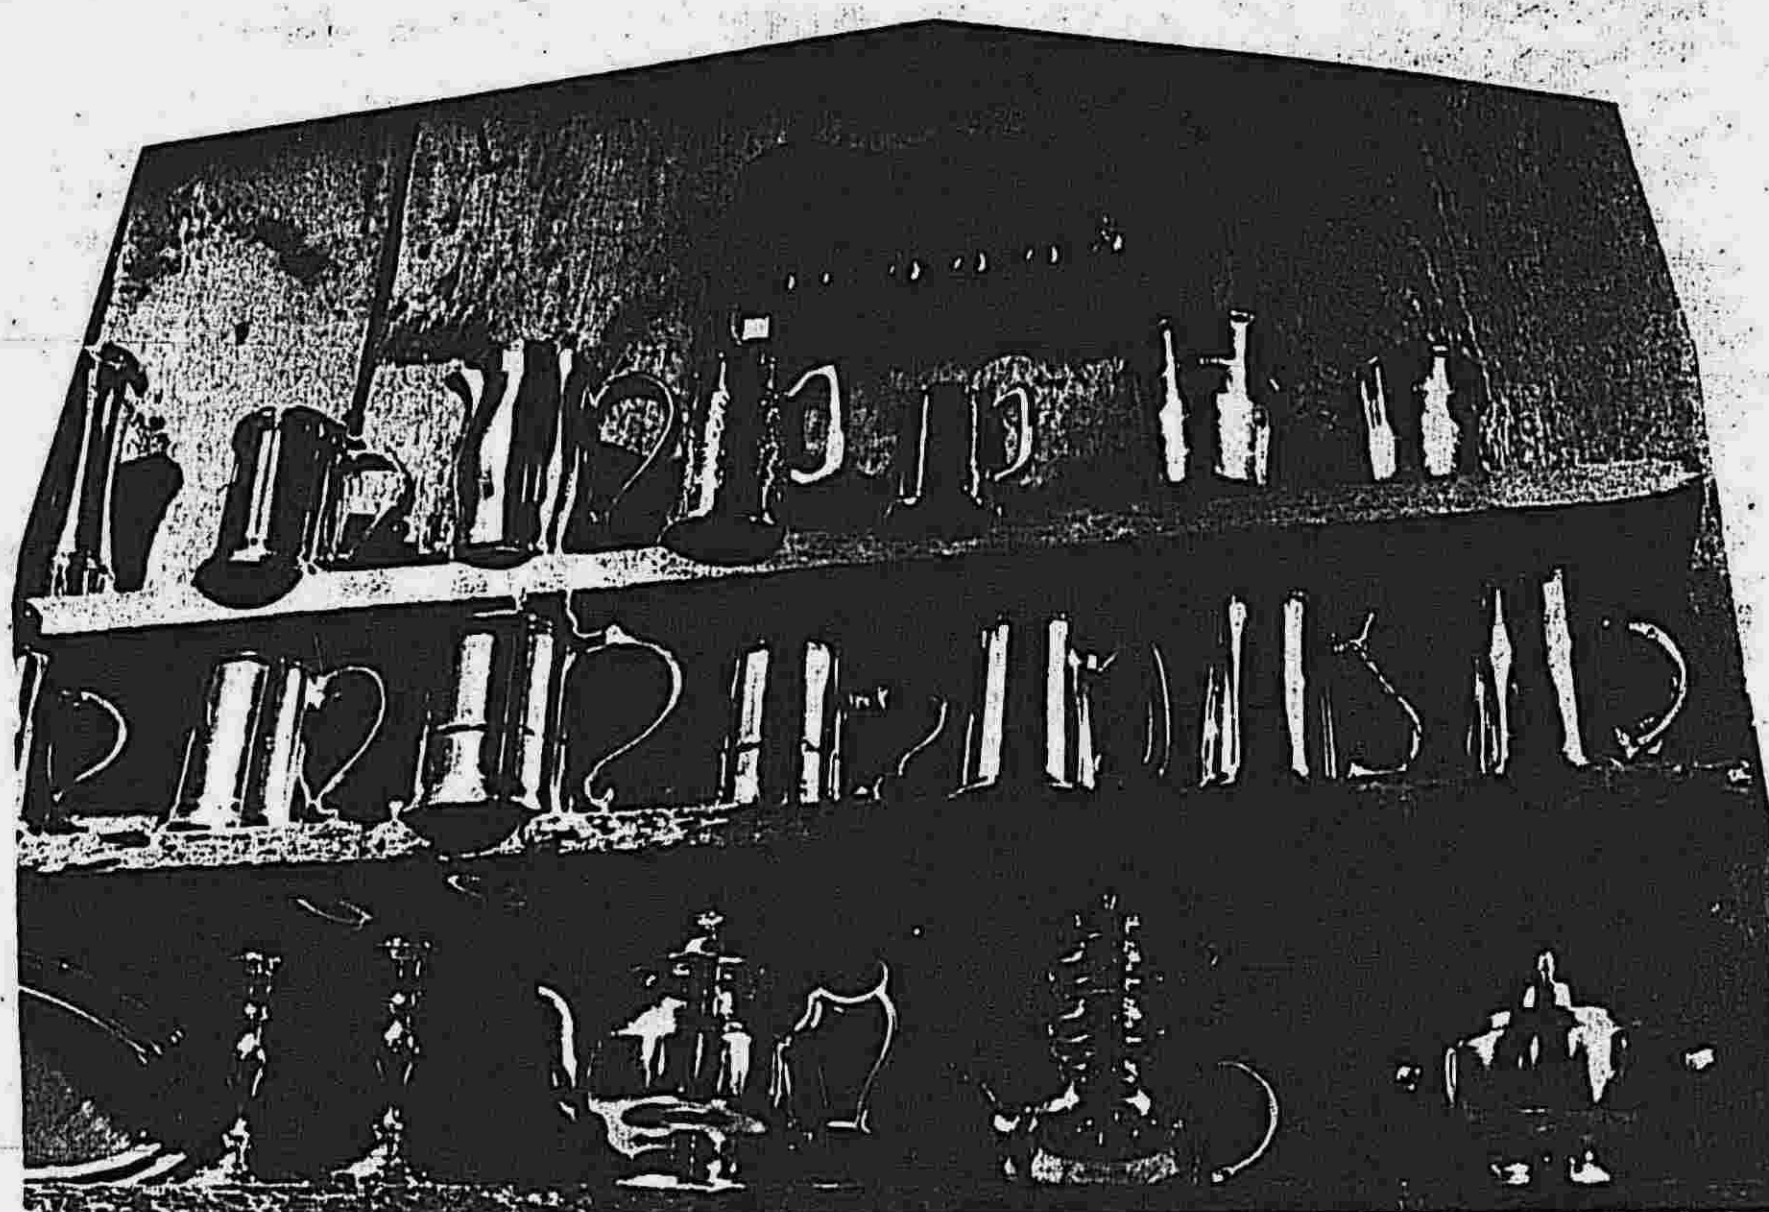

Fine crystal is extremely hard to find in these times. While many excellent facsimiles are made, none has the flawless even look and ring of fine crystal glassware. The finest examples of Old World crystal is now found only in Central and Eastern Europe. Austria and Czechoslovakia and perhaps France are the last remaining countries to provide this unique quantity.

Health Officials Call For Polio Checks

Dr. Franklin D. Yoder, director of the Illinois Public Health Department has warned that there exists "the definite possibility of a major polio problem in Illinois in the near future."

Yoder said "the appearance of low immunization levels in pre-school children and the presence of isolated polio virus in Illinois indicate an immediate urgency to immunize all pre-schoolers and to protect the rest of the population with a booster dose of trivalent vaccine."

James Donoho, head of the State Immunization Project explained, "alarming results from blood survey studies conducted in some areas of the state indicate as little as 18 percent of pre-school population is immunized against polio."

He explained that the problem was further complicated by the large variety of vaccines. Local physicians, however tend to question these findings.

According to Dr. Edward Abderholden there are strict state requirements that made immunization mandatory.

"State laws prohibit students from entering schools without documented proof of vaccination," Abderholden said.

Children entering kindergarten fifth and ninth grades are all immunized by law. In addition, new-borns aged three and six months are given oral vaccine by the attending physician.

Abderholden indicated that he had not seen one case of polio in his 18 years of private practice, and credited this to the stiff state laws.

Regardless of the conflicting reports it is wise for all Illinois citizens up to age 18 to check with their physician on the status of his polio immunization.

Antioch Rainbow Assembly Installs New Officers

Your pet is expecting! Congratulations!

This can be a trying but rewarding and fascinating time for you and your family as well as the mother-to-be.

The expectant mother should be in top physical condition if the kittens or puppies are to be healthy and vigorous.

It is very sound practice to be sure that prior to breeding she has her immunity against distemper, hepatitis and leptospirosis (a disease of the liver and kidney) in dogs and distemper, pneumonitis and rabies, for cats.

Temporary resistance to these diseases, in the form of maternal antibodies, is passed on to the puppies or kittens. It is extremely important that this immunity be present in the mother to protect the litter against exposure before they reach proper vaccination age.

I suggest that you ask your veterinarian for his advice on this.

The gestation period is generally the same for cats and dogs - roughly nine weeks or approximately 63 days. However, you should be ready for the litter to arrive at any time between the 60th through the 65th day. Just as other births occur early and late, the same thing applies in small animals.

Once pregnant, your animal should be exercised on a scaled down basis until the time of delivery. As she begins to lose her girlish figure and puts on a little more weight, you will find that she is less anxious to romp and play, and her exercise periods should be shortened.

Don't permit her to stop all activities. Without any exercise she may become overfat and her muscle tone might deteriorate which could present problems at delivery time.

Overweight animals have difficulty at delivery and frequently have small litters.

From about the fifth to the sixth week on, it's not wise to allow her to charge madly up and down the stairs, or to be jumping on and off furniture and other high objects.

Take extreme care that she never becomes chilled when wet. If there are signs of running nose, eyes, or a sudden loss of appetite, check with your veterinarian.

During the last week of pregnancy the expectant mother may appear restless. She is probably searching around the house for a safe and quiet place to have her litter.

This is when she should be introduced to her maternity box. It should be placed in a quiet location, out of drafts and the family's usual traffic pattern.

Christian Science Churches

Intuition and spiritual sense are not limited to a special few but are available to all, according to the Bible Lesson-Sermon entitled "Spirit" at Christian Science services Sunday.

Opening the Scriptural readings in this passage from Psalms: "O Lord, how manifold are thy works! in wisdom hast thou made them all: the earth is full of thy riches. Thou sendest forth thy spirit, they are created: and thou renewest the face of the earth."

The unlimited source of spiritual sense is also indicated in this citation to be read from Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy: "Spiritual sense, contradicting the material senses, involves intuition, hope, faith, understanding, fruition, reality."

Services are conducted by Mrs. Evelyn Greer, First Reader, and Mrs. Mary Adams, Second Reader, at First Church of Christ, Scientist, Beacon Hill, Rte 173 & Harden, Antioch, Illinois. The service is at 11 a.m. All are welcome.

A simple majority will be sufficient to elect a member. In the event of a tie, a runoff election will be held on the following Sunday. Results of any runoff election will be announced on the Sunday after the runoff.

Election results will be published and announced on the fourth Sunday of April. Elected members will be seated at the first regularly scheduled meeting after the election, i.e., in May.

Ballots will be available in the lower level of the Church after each Mass.

Prospective members must qualify according to school board requirements: reside in the community for at least six months; be a parish member or parent of St. Peter School child; must be a minimum of 21 years old. No person employed by the school or Volunteer aid involved in classroom activities may serve on the board.

Candidates for board membership must submit their APPLICATION-PETITION signed by at least 10 parishioners or parents of St. Peter School children to the board recording secretary, Mrs. Vistain, no later than Tuesday, March 7th.

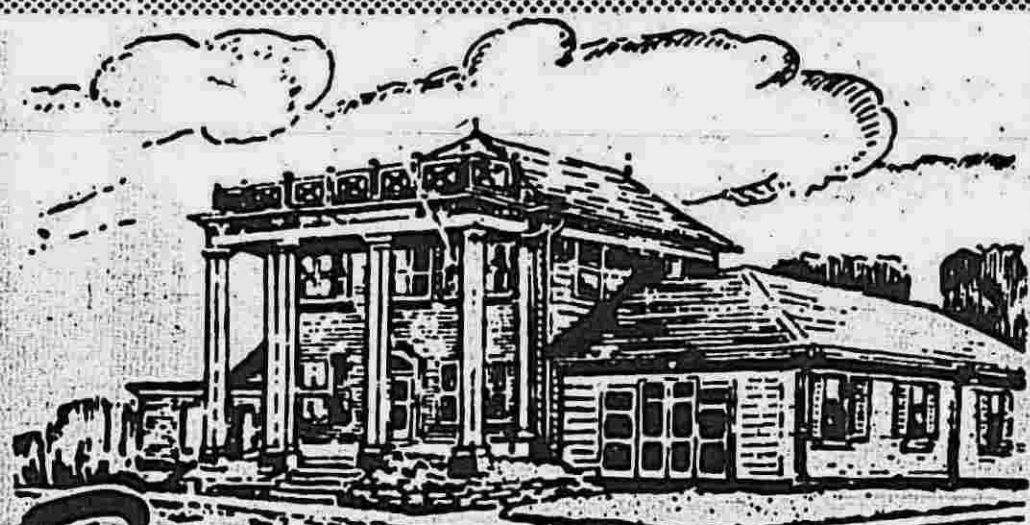

Application-Petition forms will be available at the school office after February 1st. Names will appear on the ballot in the order petitions are filed in the school office.

The election committee will be responsible for certification of all applicants. Election committee will accept all Application-Petitions. Election committee will determine eligibility and acceptance of candidates to the school board.

Announcement of qualifying candidates will be made at the school board meeting on March 9th.

In the event a candidate does not qualify, he will be advised of the decision as well as the reason for his failure to obtain certification prior to March 9th. Any candidate will have the opportunity to question the election committee should he fail to obtain certification and present his case in favor of certification prior to March 9th.

Election Committee will be dissolved after completion of election.

Julio Visits Niles West High

Julio Sanchez, Antioch High School's 1971-72 A.F.S. foreign exchange student from Costa Rica, recently had an opportunity to observe life in another fine Illinois community. Julio was a guest of the American Field Service chapter at Niles West High School from January 13 through January 16. His hospitable host family for that weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Axelrod and their two charming daughters, Julie and Linda of Lincolnwood. Julio enjoyed a delicious dinner and friendly conversation with the Axelrods on Thursday, the 13th. On Friday, foreign students from Italy, Chile, Turkey, Brazil, New Zealand, South Africa and Paraguay visited classes at Niles West High School and each of them showed interesting slides and told something about their respective countries at a forum. Friday night there was a dance and, since most of the foreign students were from warm climates, the big topic of conversation was the unbelievable cold temperatures. However, the subzero weather outside didn't spoil the warmth and congeniality inside.

Julio got a chance to use his brand new camera on Saturday, the 15th. The whole A.F.S. group took a tour of downtown Chicago and enjoyed visiting the Museum of Science and Industry and the Art Institute. Saturday night there was a basketball game at Niles West, followed by a home party for the foreign students and some of the American students who had gone abroad on A.F.S. scholarships.

Everyone was asking each other how to say things in his or her language and they danced to mostly Latin-American music. "It was really nice," said Julio. "I wish people in all countries could get along as well as we did," he reflected, "and maybe there would be no wars."

Before returning home to Antioch, a neighbor of Julio's host family thoughtfully tried to contact his family in Costa Rica by short wave radio. Unfortunately, due to adverse conditions, the attempt was unsuccessful but they will try again soon. In spite of this disappointment, it was a happy and informative weekend for Senor Sanchez.

Julio is a delightful ambassador of "the garden of the Americas" and has some beautiful slides of his homeland and family in Costa Rica, plus an authentic costumed dance that he will be happy to show to any organization or individuals. Anyone who is interested in this rewarding experience may contact Doris Surrock (395-2016) or Shirley Jensen (395-0539).

YOU CAN PUT OUR OPERATORS TO WORK FOR YOU IN A DOZEN DIFFERENT WAYS.

1. If you have trouble completing a local call, just dial the Operator and tell her. She'll be glad to help you.
2. If you ever have an emergency, and don't know who to call, call the Operator. She will try to get the help you need—in a hurry.
3. Today the fastest and cheapest way to call out-of-state, of course, is by dialing the number yourself, station-to-station. But sometimes you need a Long Distance Operator's help. For example, when you want to talk with a specific person.
4. Or if you want to make a collect call. Or charge a call to your telephone credit card or home phone number.
5. If illness or a handicap makes dialing difficult for you, just tell our Operators and they'll be happy to place your local and Long Distance calls, without extra charge.
6. One of our Operators is always there to help if you reach a wrong number. Just dial her and tell her you reached a wrong number. She'll make sure you're not charged for the call. And, if you'd like, she'll help you get the right number.
7. If a bad connection ever comes your way, don't suffer through it. One of our Operators will adjust the charges and get you a clear connection.
8. A Long Distance Operator will give you the right Area Code, too, when you can't find it on the list in the front of your Directory.
9. And if you'd like to know how much a Long Distance call will cost, she'll give you the rate before you dial.
10. If the number you're trying to reach isn't listed in the Directory, just call the Directory Assistance Operator.
11. And when the number you need is in a distant city, just dial that city's Area Code, (if different from your own) then "555-1212." The Operator who answers will track down the number for you.
12. Even when you dial a number that isn't working, our Operators will help you reach the person you want. If the number has been changed, an Operator will answer and give you the new number.

You'll find the numbers for local, Long Distance and Directory Assistance Operators in the front of your Telephone Directory.

Remember, when you need help with your telephone calls you can always get it from one of our Operators. As far as a lot of our customers are concerned, they are The Telephone Company.

WE'RE A LOT MORE THAN JUST TALK.

S S HOPE Leaves for Brazil February 4

The S.S. HOPE begins her tenth medical teaching voyage on February 4 when she departs Baltimore, Maryland, for Natal, Brazil. The hospital ship is scheduled to arrive in northeastern Brazil on February 16 where the HOPE staff will carry out medical treatment and training programs during the next ten months.

Project HOPE was invited to Brazil by the University of Natal. During the mission HOPE will work with the University in an area-wide program to improve the general health of the population of northeastern Brazil.

Northeastern Brazil has a severe shortage of medical personnel, primarily in the nursing and auxiliary health fields. The ship's permanent staff of nurses, technicians and allied health personnel will work with local counterparts sharing the latest advances and techniques of medicine. Brazil's overall health system will benefit from HOPE's team approach to health care.

Teams of 20 to 25 volunteer U.S. physicians representing various specialties will spend two-month rotations in Brazil where they will work with local physicians exchanging medical knowledge and skills.

Health conditions in Natal and the surrounding area with a population of 1.6 million make this a logical area from which HOPE activities will be conducted in the upcoming ten months.

Life expectancy at birth is 50 years, compared to 70 for U.S.

Deaths per thousand of population in northeast Brazil is 18, compared to 13 for Brazil as a whole.

Infant mortality is high in the Northeast. 50.6% of all deaths occur in children five years of age and below; in the U.S. 5.4% of annual deaths occur in this age group.

In the Northeast there are 0.6 physicians per 10,000 inhabitants compared to the U.S. average of 12 per 10,000. Below the physician level the shortage is even more striking; and in the public health sector, this results in a severe shortage of public health nurses.

Using the hospital ship as a base of operation, HOPE will branch out to health institutions and schools in Natal, as well as outlying rural areas. Areas of general health care in most critical need of attention include environmental sanitation, nutrition and control of communicable diseases.

HOPE will be involved in a measles eradication program, since the mortality rate for measles in young children runs as high as 60%. A dental program emphasizing preventive care for the general population is planned. In the field of nursing, where a crucial shortage of trained personnel exists, HOPE will assist in the further training and expansion of skills and roles of auxiliary personnel.

Heading the HOPE team in Brazil will be William B. Walsh, M.S., President and founder of HOPE. Dr. Harold Royalty of Cucamonga, Calif. will serve as Chief of Staff. Robert Downs of Oak Park, Ill. will serve as Administrator. Miss Mary Harrigan of Buffalo, N.Y. will be Chief Nurse.

HOPE's mission to Brazil represents the second leg of a three-year hemispheric commitment. Completion of the first phase occurred in November 1971 when the S.S. HOPE departed after a ten-month mission to the West Indies at Kingston, Jamaica. A third mission to Venezuela is planned.

HOPE's previous missions have included Indonesia, South Vietnam, Peru, Ecuador, Guinea, Nicaragua, Colombia, Ceylon, Tunisia, and the West Indies.

In the spring of 1969, HOPE began health career training programs for Mexican-Americans and Navajo Indians in the American Southwest.

Project HOPE is the principal activity of The People-to-People Health Foundation, Inc. based in Washington, D.C. It is supported by donations from the American people.

Boy Scout Council Announces Capital Fund Drive

Mr. Richard Kennedy, President of the Northeast Illinois Council, Boy Scouts of America announced today the beginning of a $1,700,000 capital funds campaign. The campaign titled the Leadership Development Campaign will provide funds in support of the long range plan of the Council.

"On December 31, 1971, 29.8% of all area boys, available by age, were enrolled in one of the three programs of the Northeast Illinois Council, B.S.A.," said Kennedy. "By 1976 this will increase to a full 35% of all area boys and represent an increase from 16,000 to nearly 23,000 boys by year end-1976."

"Consequently our facilities: camps, training areas, and the Service Center, which are already straining to meet the demands, will not be able to keep pace at all," stated the organization's president.

He explained that the Leadership Development

Campaign will make it possible for two new long-term Boy Scout camps to be completed at Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan Scout Reservation in northern Wisconsin, a close-in Youth Leadership Development Area to be constructed for year around use; the erection of a Council Service Center near the geographic and population center of the area and provide for program expansion.

Kennedy pointed out that the campaign is the capstone on a five-year program of planning and will provide the tools necessary to implement the highest quality Scouting program in America.

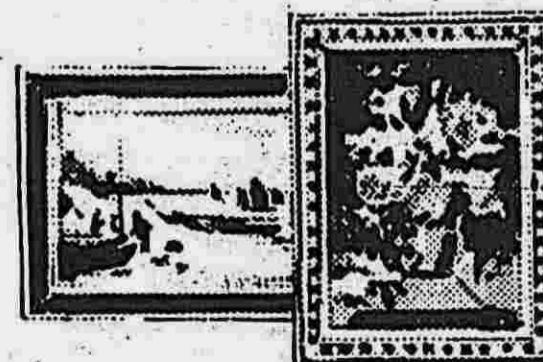

The Northeast Illinois Council, Boy Scouts of America serves the area from Evanston north to the Wisconsin border and West to the McHenry County line.

Mr. Kennedy is Associate Publisher of the Waukegan News Sun and is a resident of Waukegan.

Homer White Attends Farm Management Seminar

Successful Farming magazine attracted more than 120 farm owners, operators, educators, and agribusinessmen to its Farm Management Seminar, held in Des Moines, Iowa, January 20-21.

Fred Stines, SF publisher, said the seminar drew participants from 18 different states - from towns as far away as Clovis, N.M., and New Holland, Penn. Most of those attending were from midwestern states, with Iowa and Illinois best represented. Homer White, of Rte 2, Antioch who was just elected President of the McHenry Co., Livestock Association attended from our area.

A series of idea-sharing sessions, led by five national agribusiness experts, was offered during the two-day seminar. In addition, a three-farmer panel which included Gib Stanek, Fort Dodge, Iowa; Stanley Pankratz, Mountain Lake, Minn.; and Dick West, Farmer City, Ill., discussed their own management and profit experiences.

Other speakers included Texas A&M University Professor John Hopkin; Neil Harl, member of the Iowa State University Department of Agricultural Economics; Fred Bailey, Jr., Chicago Board of Trade consultant; Iowa CPA W.J. Hunzelman; and Lindley Finch, Chicago Banker. The speeches and special question-and-answer sessions covered farm accounting, estate planning, tax credits, farm management, and expansion strategy.

SF Managing Editor Wayne S wegle said the $100-per-person seminar, "exceeded our expectations. We are very encouraged by the interest in farm management, not only from agribusinesses, but from farm owners and operators across the country."

of the world on wheels, will await the motorists' inspection.

This is an auto show unequalled in presentation or size. Staged in the magnificent lake front exposition center it is spread over some 600,000 square feet. In addition to the cars it will be delightfully filled with girls, sports personalities, comedians and many auto related and special exhibitd.

According to Clarence W. Marquardt, Jr., President of the Chicago Automobile Trade Association which has been sponsoring the show since 1935, its continued success has been due in great measure to the strict adherence to the theme, "something for everyone." He said:

The show hours are from 11 a.m. to 11 p.m. daily through closing night, Sunday, March 5. Admission is $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for children 12 and under.

3rd Annual Ice Derby - February 20

Antioch's 885 Club will serve up a special treat for frigid fishermen on Sunday February 20th with the staging of their 3rd Annual Ice Derby.

Over one hundred valuable prizes will be given to lucky anglers for merely catching their favorite species of fish. Prize winning categories include bass; bluegill; sunfish; crappie; northern pike; walleye pike; perch; striper; bullhead and catfish.

The largest one of each of these which are caught every hour will win a prize, and then at days end the largest of each species will also be rewarded, as will the largest one of the day.

The first prizes will be awarded at 9 a.m., and every hour after that, the last one at 4 p.m. when all the prizes will be handed out.

Additionally, prizes will be given to winners of twelve special events, on the half hour, the first one starting at 9:30 a.m. with the Men's Hole Making contest with an Auger, followed by the Ladies Auger

Contest and the Men's Chisel Contest. Then will come the 6 to 12 year Children's Fishing Contest and the Ladies Fishing Contest, both in the freshly made holes, after which will follow the Boys and Girls Sack Race (8 to 12 years); Ladies Sack Race; Men's Sack Race; Boys and Girls Skating Contest; then an Ice Skating Race for Boys and Girls separately.

There will be a Penny Scramble for very small Children who will pick five hundred pennies out of the straw on the ice, and lastly, a Kite Flying Contest.

Top prizes of the day include a 7 1/2 H.P. Mercury Outboard Motor; 14 Foot Aluminum Boat; His & Hers Snowmobile Suits; Zenith Tape Recorder; and an Ovenware Set, to name a few.

A power auger will be on the ice to make holes for the aged, the weak and those who would fish without exerting themselves too much.

Hot refreshments will be served on the ice, in the warm shelter, and in Felter's Clubhouse on shore, for spectators and participants.

Scene of the gala event is the south end of Lake Catherine, one mile west of Antioch on Route 173. Plenty of supervised free parking will be available at Bob's Mercury Marina; and other marked places adjacent to the Derby scene.

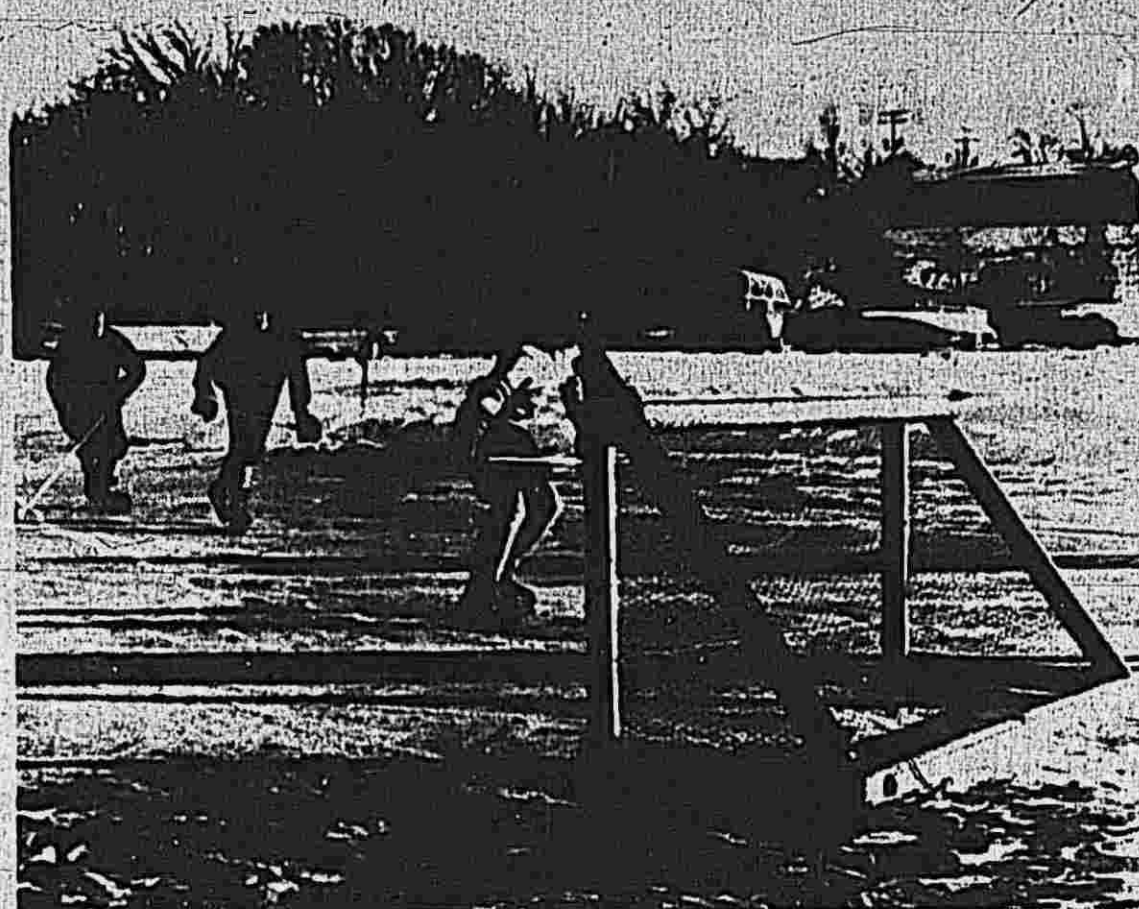

Special rules for all events and contests will be displayed on the ice.

Warming salamanders will be spotted on the ice for the Eskimo type spectators and fishers. The shelters on the ice will be heated, so none need fear the cold.

A complete schedule of the days events will be issued shortly by derby chairman Charles Rayman.

All of the net proceeds of this event will be used to implement the 885 Club's civic programs, said club president Norm Rockow.

THE NETS

Village Helps Those Who "help themselves"

Industry and the ability to improvise have always been the trademarks associated with Americans. A group of local young men have, in their own small way, added to this concept.

When faced with the situation of having the hockey nets they were using repossessed by their owner, the group sought help. After being unable to scrounge up the needed wood and screening, they turned to the Village.

Trustee Irv Walsh lent an ear to their request and the ball (or puck) was rolling. Walsh located some spare wood and screening for the young men and even gave them some tips on how to make a more durable goal.

A Village official commented that "we are always willing to help people who want to do it themselves."

Once the goals had been assembled, the rink just west of the water works was in constant use.

The group of young men who built the nets also play the game well. They have competed against many other area amateur teams and almost defeated Milton College (Wisc.).

One of the members of the team explained that while they play for fun, money is scarce for rental of rinks and travel. If anyone would like to help sponsor this group they would appreciate a call at 395-2018.

MULCHES FOR YOUR GARDEN

Now is the time to plan your garden for the coming spring says Lee Bridgman, District Conservationist. Include a mulch in your garden plans this year. A good mulch can help reduce soil blowing, washing, and suppress the weeds. It will also keep the soil moist and cool and add organic to the soil.

To help you with your planning, the Soil Conservation Service has recently released a new pamphlet, "Mulches For Your Garden". It provides the hows and wherefores of small garden mulches. To obtain your free copy contact the Soil Conservation Service, P. O. Box 555, Lake Zurich, Illinois or phone 438-6319.

ANNUAL SNOWMOBILE

GAGES LAKE—A record large turnout is expected for the Third Annual Gagewood Lions Club's snowmobile derby, Sunday, February 6th, if the weatherman cooperates.

The family fun day affair will be held on the Lake County Fairgrounds, which is at the intersection of Rtes. 45 and 120, between Wildwood and Grayslake.

Registration time is at 9 a.m. with the first racing program to begin at 11 a.m. Pre-registration forms are available through the dealers and Lions Club members. Anyone interested may contact Leroy Gwaltney at 362-7707, Bill Larson at 223-5774 or Joe Schaberger at 223-0343.

Project chairman, Gwaltney, announced that a large turnout is expected since nine dealers have already indicated they will be making an appearance.

Included on the program will be quarter-mile drag races, stake races, flag races, and a broom ball event. The latter three events, which test driving skills, will be open to anyone over 12 and there are no restrictions on the horsepower of the machines.

A special race with both stock and modified machines, each in its own class, will follow a course of either one-half mile oval or 2 1/4 mile with curves.

A driver may enter more than one machine by paying the required entry fees. In compiling points for the high point trophy each entry is a separate one. The driver with the most points has his name put on the high point trophy, which is kept on display at the Rustic Manor in Gurnee.

There will be five divisions in stock and modified events. Trophies and ribbons will be presented to the top drivers.

A special powder puff race for the fairer sex will also be on the program in keeping with the ideals of the club to make the derby a family fun day.

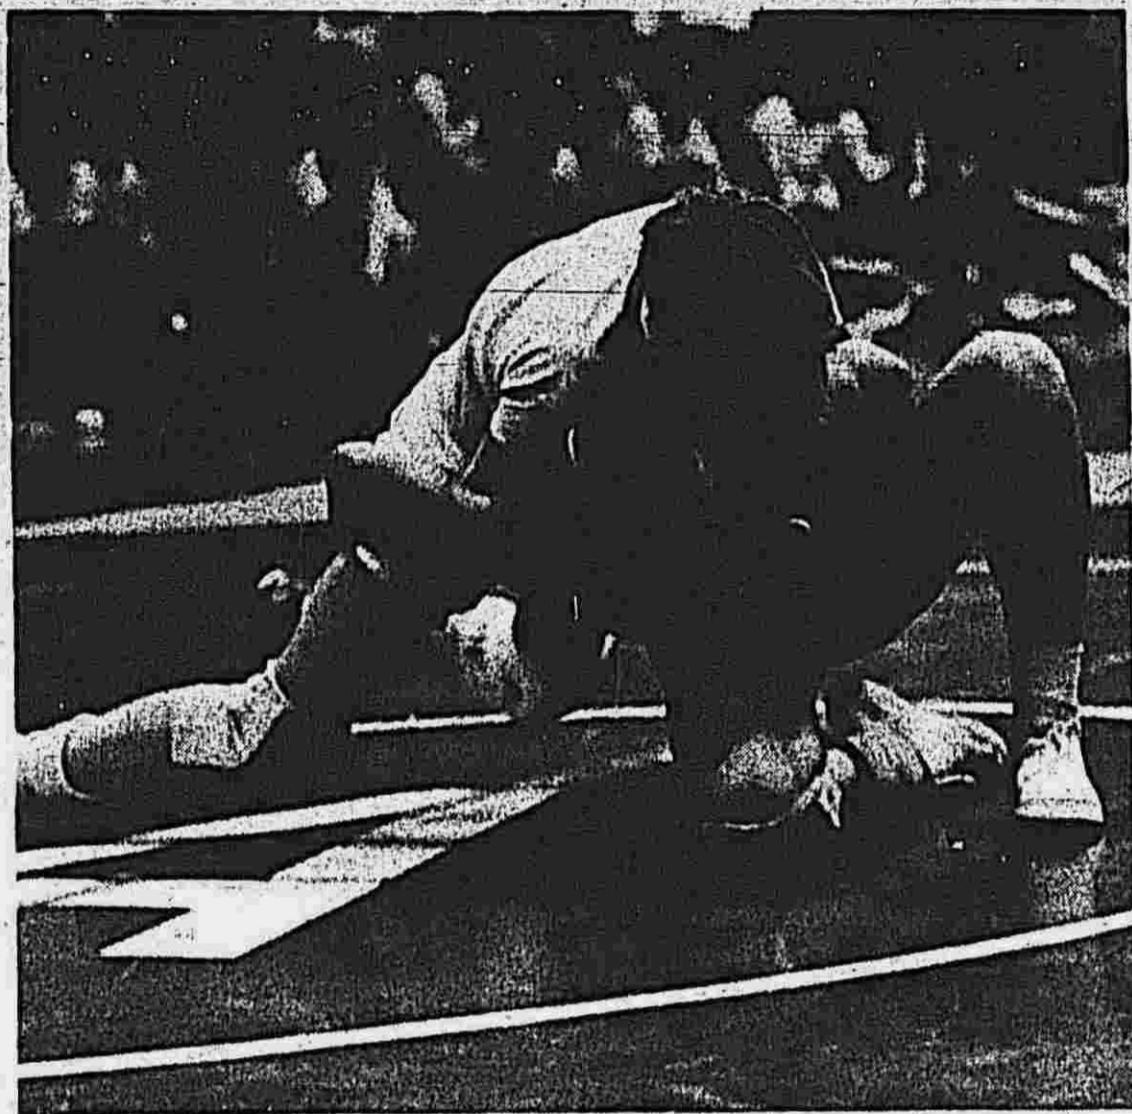

Snowmobile dealers will have the latest machines on display in the heated building in the center of the fairgrounds.

Refreshments will be served in the heated cafeteria.

Last year's event met with some trouble from the weatherman and had to be postponed nearly a month before it was finally run off. The club has set Sunday, February 20th, as the alternate date in case of no snow.

As with all Lions Club projects the proceeds go to aid the blind as well as community projects.

The Antioch and Lake Villa 8th grade wrestlers had a chance to show off their skills during the Friday night wrestling meet at the Antioch High School. 122 lb-J. Coia of Lake Villa (bottom) and Nissen of Antioch (top) proved that their skills were just about even. The final score was tied 2 all. (staff photo)

SOPHS BULLDOZE WAUCONDA 50-9

The string of victories for Antioch's sophomore grapplers continued over last weekend as they humbled conference rival Wauconda 50-9.

Coach Bruce Bartoz said that the victory may have been a result of comments made after last week's upset at the hands of Warren's wrestlers. "I told the boys they had to fire-up and prove something to themselves."

The pep talk was all his men needed to really "turn it on" the hapless Wauconda team.

Phil Edwards, at 98 pounds won by default when his opponent was injured. He had been leading by a 7-0 score at the time of the mishap.

At 105 pounds Dennis Thain pinned his Wauconda opponent in 3:15.

Dirk Dietz had the day off as the Wauconda wrestler couldn't make weight.

Bob Sweatman, wrestling at 119 pounds won his match easily 5-0. Coach Bartoz noted that "he looked much better than recent matches."

Joe Reidlinger, a freshman starting his first sophomore match wrestled at 126 and won by a 14-2 score. Reidlinger was bumped up as a result of the altercation between Dave Rush and the athletic staff over Rush's performance and subsequent absence for a band function. Rush had an 8-3 prior to leaving the squad.

John Meyer had a close match at 132, but pulled out an exciting 4-2 decision.

Mike Beesley was the only real Sequoit casualty as he dropped a 4-0 match at 145 pounds to Wauconda's Paul Eberle. Bartoz called Eberle an "outstanding wrestler. I can't understand why he is not wrestling varsity."

Larry Yopp won his first match at 155 since December 3rd. "It's the best he looked all year and should give him some confidence for the conference tournament," Bartoz said.

At 167, Bill Beese pinned his man in 1:34 and looked impressive in the quick win.

Bill Armstrong was forced to forfeit his match at 187 because of a recurring bronchial asthma problem. He was in the hospital at the time of the match and hopes are high that he will return in good health for the tourney.

Heavyweight Glen Nixon had a surprisingly short match as he pinned his Wauconda counterpart in short order at 1:06.

The win gave the sophomore Sequoits a 6-1 conference record and 11-3 overall mark.

Frosh Wrestlers Conference Champs

For the second year in a row, the Antioch High School Freshmen Wrestlers went undefeated in the N.W.S.C. and gained the Conference Championship. The Sequoits were 7-0 in conference matches, and completed the season with a record of 14 wins 1 loss and 1 tie.

The final conference victory came over Wauconda by a score of 37 to 11. Standouts for the Sequoits were Steve Olsen and Dale Eastman. Commenting on their performances Coach Steve Wapon was delighted, "These two men have been the real comers on the team. They both started the season very slow, and have just never stopped improving. Steve finished the year with a 10-3-1 record, and Dale completed the year at 12-3-1. I hope that they will continue to work, and improve even more next year." Other standouts on the Sequoits squad are: Tom Kost (10-0-1), David Kisner (13-1), Scott Shaffer

(10-1), Terry Lear (9-4-3), Joe Riedlinger (13-1), Jim January (11-1), and Rich Coari (15-0). Dennis Thain has wrestled on the Sophomore team and is preparing for the Sophomore Conference tourney this coming Saturday.

Wapon termed this "my best freshman squad ever. They broke numerous records and have worked very hard to get where they are."

He added that the freshmen, unlike their elders will have no end of the season tourney.

GRAPPLERS TAKE TRIO

The varsity wrestlers of Coach Ted DeRousse had an especially hectic week as they were more than up for the three challenges that faced them. Antioch was victorious over all three opponents and will ride the crest of this triple win into the Conference Tourney on Friday and Saturday at Warren.

The first challenge of the week was an unusual Wednesday night meet at Salem Central High School. While it was a relatively close match at 27-17, the Sequoits were never in any serious trouble as they took 8 of the 12 matches.

John Roberts and John Thain pinned their opponents, both in 5:45. Cliff Bode won his match by an overwhelming score of 17-2.

In Friday's match against Wauconda, the Sequoits had a real "laugher" as they crushed them by a humiliating 55-3 score. Antioch lost only one weight class as Terry Olson held the dubious distinction of dropping a close 6-4 test.

Wauconda forfeited five of the twelve weight classes and never really had a prayer.

The meet, which competed with the varsity cagers for attendance managed to jam the old gym.

Saturday was a far different story for the Sequoits. Woodstock proved a worthy opponent as they fought gamely but lost 25-15. The teams split the first six matches with Antioch taking the first three. However, the middle weight classes (Shaffer, Feldman and Olson) blitzed their competition to put it away for the Sequoits. With their regular season now completed the Sequoits ended 7-0 in the Conference and 13-3 over all.

Warren High School in Gurnee will be the site of this year's Conference Tournament. On Friday, February 4th, preliminaries will begin at 7 p.m. The semi-finals will be held Saturday at 1 p.m. with finals at 7:00 p.m. Come and support your Conference Champs at Warren over the weekend. A little cheering can mean the difference!

Emmons Squeaks Past Spring Grove 45-42

In an early battle for the Big Six Conference lead, Emmons traveled to Spring Grove to do battle with its closest contender.

Jon Bodin led Emmons with 18 points to offset Chuck Hoffman's 18 points for Spring Grove. The remainder of the Emmons starters out scored the Eagles by three to give the margin of victory.

Emmons jumped to an early lead in the first quarter, but were cooled by a determined Spring Grove squad. The Raiders opened their lead from 8-7 at the beginning of the second stanza to 21-16 at intermission.

In the third period, Spring Grove closed the gap to 31-30.

Midway through the final period, the Eagles headed the Raiders 37-36. During the last three minutes of the game, Emmons rallied to dominate the boards and out score their opponents 9 to 5.

Emmons took a 39-31 rebounding edge in the game. The Raiders were led by Jeff Eder with 14, while Ken Cash and John Christiansen added 8 each. Balanced scoring proved to be the key to victory. While Bodin hit for 18, Eder added 8, Bob Dubek and Christiansen chipped in 6 each and Paul Petty bagged 5 to give the Raiders the victory.

In the B team contest John Kakacek tossed in 6 points, while Bill Dubek and Tracy Sodman connected for 4 points each in leading Emmons to a 19-9 victory.

These two conference wins gives Emmons a string of 49 consecutive victories in conference play.

Monmouth Honors Local Players

Before a large crowd on January 26th the Monmouth College "fighting scots" were honored for their co-championship of the Mid-West conference and presented several awards.

Included in the presentation were three young men from the Antioch area. Greg Drije of Antioch, Karl Jennrich of Lake Villa and Ron Ozga, also of Antioch were honored for their service to the team.

Drije, one of the co-captains and two-time all-conference center helped to present the championship trophy to Dr. Richard D. Stein, president of Monmouth.

Also honored for their outstanding play were Jennrich and Ozga. Both were cited for their excellent ability and were presented with varsity football letters.

Following the award presentations Bob Blackman, head football coach at the University of Illinois blazed the banquet trail with what was termed as a "funny and serious talk" on football and sports in general.

Sophs Split Twin-bill

Antioch's sophomore cagers split their weekend twin bill beating Round Lake 57-41 before losing to Warren in a squeaker 38-33. The sophs are now in second place with a record of eight wins and two losses.

Against Round Lake the Sequoits took an early lead and dominated the entire game. Coach Norm Hahn was able to use all 15 of his players as Antioch built up an 18 point lead at the end of three quarters. Mike Gutowski led all scorers with 17 points as Vic McGuire tallied 13 in a fine effort.

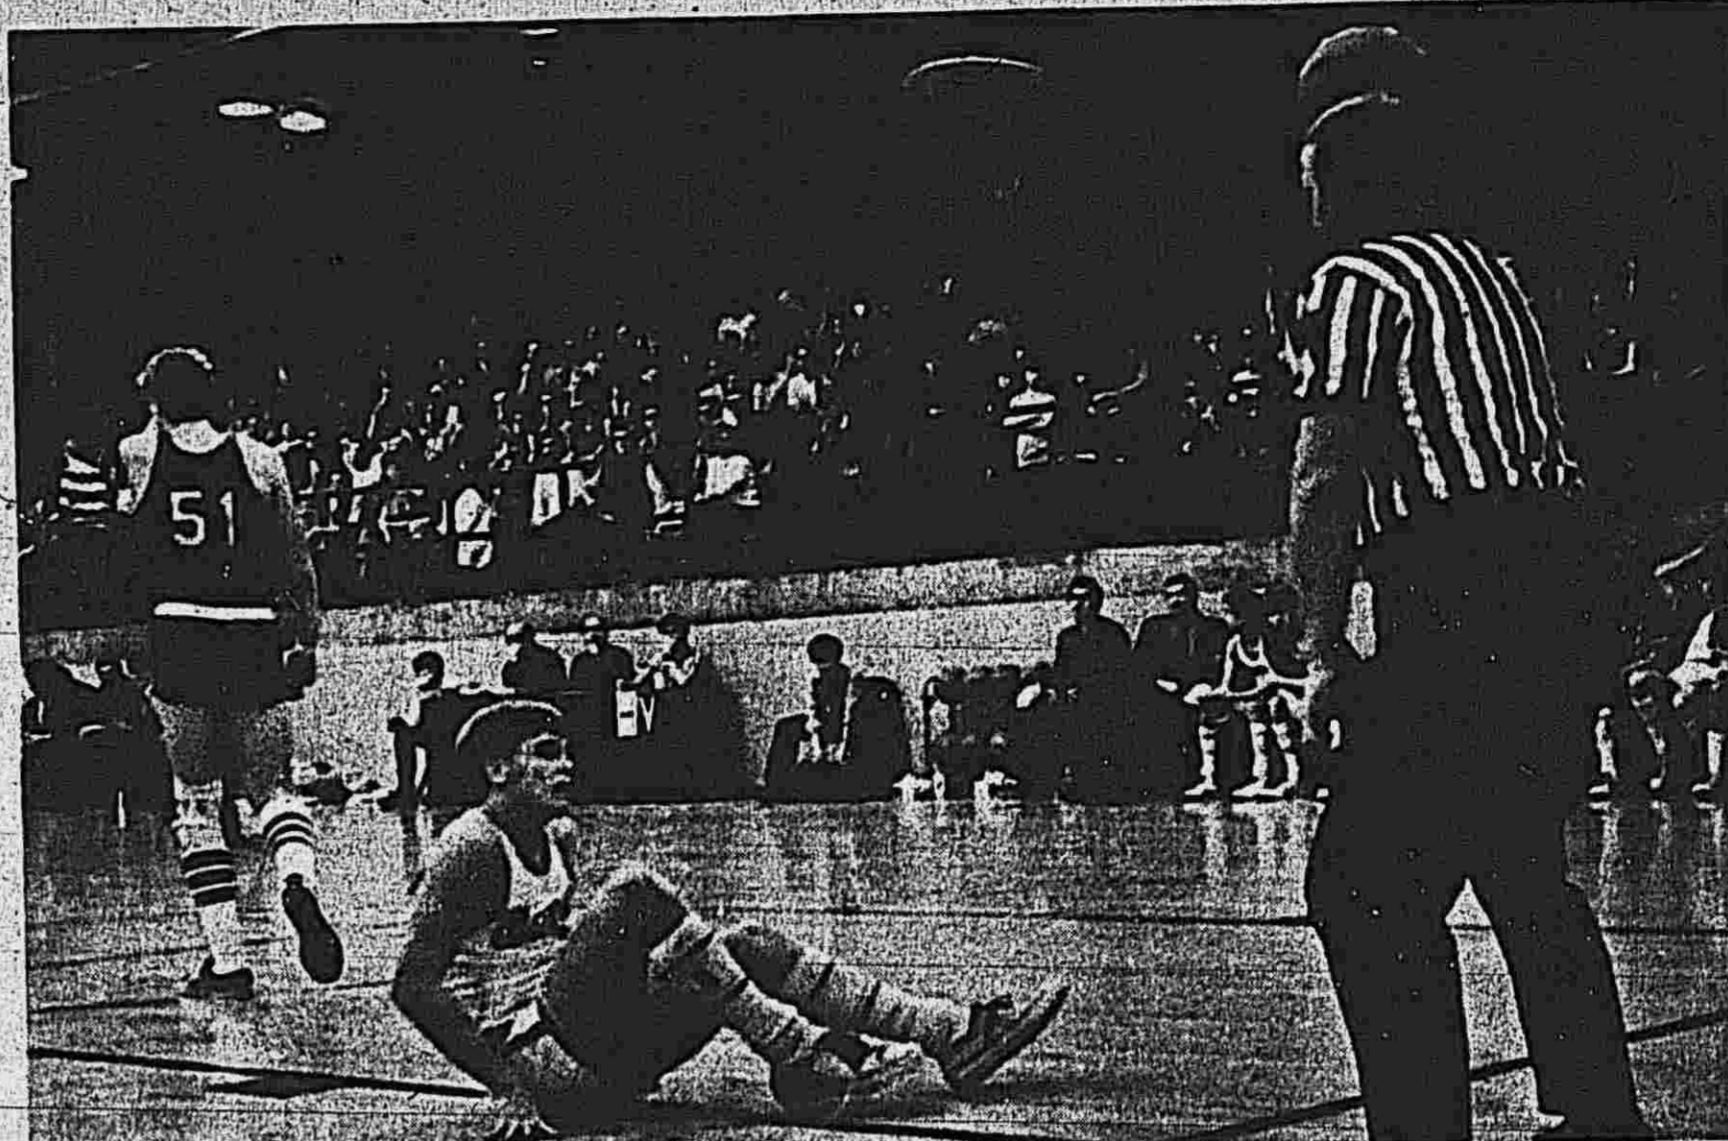

In the big one Saturday at Gurnee the Sequoits waged a tremendous defensive battle holding the Blue Devils 30 points below their season average, but couldn't pull out the victory. Warren is now all alone in first place with a 9-1 record.

Hahn noted "the story of the game was rebounding, since all other aspects were close." Antioch failed to keep the big men away from the boards and consequently Warren pulled in 19 offensive rebounds.

The rebounding enabled the Warren squad to take second and third shots while the Sequoits were getting just one. "Adding to the problem was cold shooting. The Sequoits shot the poorest they have all season," said Hahn.

Despite the loss the season isn't all over. Antioch will be working hard to finish the season with four more victories. Hahn said, "with a little help from someone, Antioch's Sophomores could still end up as champs."

Freshman Roll On

Antioch's freshman basketball squad continued its winning ways over the weekend with a 49-37 pasting of Round Lake. The win was the twelfth to date for the frosh against one loss.

Russ Albano, 6'2 1/2" freshman led the scoring for the first year Sequoits with 15 points. In addition, Kevin Walpole managed 14 followed by Mike Perrone with 8. Mike Grindley 6 and John Walker with 2. Bobby Dodd, playmaker for the first year Sequoits notched 4 points and did an outstanding job as floor general.

Antioch's only loss of the season was against Lake Forest and the team is chomping at the bit for a chance to get their revenge.

In the way of statistics, the frosh have averaged 62 points a game while limiting their opponents to just 40.

Coach Willis Parker noted that the success of the team "lies in its overall strength, hustle, shooting and defensive ability."

He named Mike Witt, Rick Fisher, George Pierce, Frank Pleviak and Aaron Green as contributing to the strong bench strength that has made the difference in this year's team. Parker took time to note that Witt and Fisher had both scored in double figures on two occasions.

While the team hasn't gotten the most in coverage their 12-1 record is the best of the Sequoit round-ballers. During the Christmas Holidays they won first place in the Harvard Invitational Tournament, defeating Wauconda, Harvard and Crystal Lake.

The Freshmen have six scheduled games remaining before the tournament at North Chicago in March.

SEQUOITS SPLIT- drop to second

For the first time this season the Sequoits are not the front runners. This as a result of an exasperating weekend split.

Friday's outcome was more or less expected as the Sequoits got a score from Round Lake, but won regardless 63-58.

Panthers Underrated

Round Lake is either the most deceptive team at hiding talent or one of the really underrated schools around. They aren't really impressive, but for Bill Swieton. And yet, they'll be found hanging in there until the very end.

The real key to the game was the second quarter. The Sequoits outscored Round Lake 17-7 and drew away to a comfortable lead.

However, in the third quarter the Sequoit guns went still. They failed to tally for the last 4½ minutes allowing Round Lake to creep up within three at 48-45.

The Sequoits moved to a short lived lead in the fourth quarter only to have their pesky opponents narrow the gap once more. With 1:21 remaining, Round Lake was a single bucket behind 60-58.

Tell Ices It

But Tim Mieure, still not 100% sank a basket from outside and Ken Tell got a charity shot to ice it.

The return of Tim Mieure to the line up had one effect on the Sequoits; they played a heads up game. One sign of this was the 15 assists that were notched by Antioch.

In what has to be his best game yet, Ken Tell was the leading scorer for Antioch with 20 points. He also grabbed four rebounds and played an adequate game on defense.

Following Tell were Jeff Williams with 14, Pat Michalak with 13, Mark Andrews 9 and the returning Tim Mieure with 7.

Change is Due

Saturday's game put a damper on Sequoit hopes for a Conference Championship, but a change is due in the fortunes of the basketball wars.

Antioch played a good game against the Blue Devils of Warren, but turnovers and a lack of consistency were the difference.

The game was tight throughout with the Sequoits never really at the panic point until the last minute of the fourth quarter.

Sequoits Blow It

From my viewpoint, the Sequoits had their chances to take the lead and build on it, but they just plain blew it. It's a shame, but then that's what makes basketball so exciting.

An interesting note. In the Round Lake game the officials called a total of 26 fouls. However, there were 27 infractions called on Antioch alone in the Warren game. The Blue Devils put in their effort toward immortality with 26 making a combined total of 53.

While I have neither the keen eye nor the infallible knowledge of a basketball referee; totting a camera near the baseline does afford a pretty good view of the action. I guess I'll have to put in for bifocals, because I saw it a lot different.

Question of Consistency

This is in no way an excuse for the loss, because the game was called the same for both sides. I hate people that blame an official for a loss on one particular call. But for me, the officials were less than consistent in their calling and this effected play and took a lot away from what could have been a very exciting game. The sight of players criss-crossing the center line on their way to shoot free throws bores me to tears.

Anyway, the Sequoits lost 73-64.

Pat Michalak and Jeff Williams each had 19 points. Mark Andrews and Tim Mieure followed with 13 and 10.

Antioch outrebounded the Blue Devils by 10 and shot 5% better. You can draw your own conclusions.

"Polecat" Does His Thing

With Andrews, Williams and Tell out, Mark Polson got his chance. He surprised many fans by snaring 12 rebounds and doing a good job on defense.

The Sequoits are now 7-3 in conference play, tied with Warren and a game back of Grant. Next on the bill for Antioch is Lake Zurich, away on Friday night. Better to lift one set of lungs than to curse the T.V. Come out and cheer your sons and neighbors on!
